Stefan Wöhl is a Senior Partner at Kessel & Kessel GmbH. He has spent over 15 years consulting on change processes for people and organisations. He focuses primarily on supporting teams and project groups as well as on the development of executives.

His strength is in creating force fields in which resources and potentials are unearthed to enable and shape new perspectives with courage and joy. He supports teams in cooperating effectively and in working towards agile self-organisation. During further training courses, he connects people quickly and creates lively learning environments. Stefan has many years of expertise in consulting on career development and the professional reorientation of executives.

The basis of his consulting work is his training in systemic transactional analysis (TA) with Bertine Kessel at the Institut Kessel & Kessel in Hanstedt. He is a trained body psychotherapist and certified consultant for the Golden Profiler of Personality.

In his work in a management consultancy, he worked together with Prof. Julius Kuhl in developing an instrument for the comprehensive functional analysis of personality. As a certified consultant for PSI Diagnostics, he supports coachees in individual goal-oriented development processes.

Stefan is a banker who studied psychology and sociology at the University of Hamburg.
